

CORBY CHOIR FUNDRAISING SUCCESS

Corby Male Voice Choir has made a fantastic start to its 2018 fundraising campaign, following the choir's first concert of the year on Friday 20th April, held at St Denys' Church in Sleaford. Organised by the Sleaford and District Lions Club, the concert helped them raise an impressive £400 which will be shared between the two charities; "Children with Cancer" and the "Sleaford Arthritis Care Group".

The choir's Director of Music, Mrs Jan Williams said, "The choir is delighted the concert was such a success, especially in an unfamiliar venue for the choir to perform at and that the concert was able to raise such an impressive amount of money for two very worthwhile causes'.

Jan went on to say, "We were also thrilled to have been so warmly received by the audience and it has certainly got the choir's bid to make 2018 our most successful fundraising year yet off to a flying start".

But as they say, there is no rest for the wicked! It's now full steam ahead for the Corby Male Voice Choir's next concert which is to take place on Friday 11th May, at Barn Hill Methodist Church in Stamford at 7.30pm. It is organised by the Stamford and District Lions Club, who are raising money for their Charities Account.
