CRACKER OF A CONCERT

Corby Male Voice Choir will be in fine voice for the final time this year as it puts the last preparations in place for its annual Christmas concert, at St. Andrew's Church of Scotland, Occupation Road, Corby on Friday 6th December 2019 at 7.30pm.

Organised by the choir, the concert is the highlight of the Choir's year. Mrs Jan Williams, Director of Music said, "The choir is looking forward to getting everyone in the mood for Christmas with its last public concert of the year. Alongside firm Christmas favourites such as White Christmas, Mary Had A Baby and Winter Wonderland, the concert for the first time will also feature a variety of solos, trios and a quartet from the Choir and will also give concert goers the opportunity to join in with traditional Christmas carols, led by the Choir".

She went on to say, "Since the Corby Male Voice Choir was first founded in 1976, it has helped local charitable organisations raise in excess of £330,000 for their good causes, singing at some 586 concerts. This year the Choir so far has helped raise £4,766 for good causes and local charities and although this concert will be raising monies for choir funds, we are asking that everyone "bring a tin" of food, all of which will be then distributed to the Corby Food Bank".

Tickets for the concert are £8 to include light refreshments in the church hall during the interval and are available from Steve - 07703 462851 or you can pay at the door on the night. A concert programme will also be available to purchase separately on the night. There will also be a raffle.
